

FIRST SUMMER INSTITUTE
FOR THE SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF SUBJECTIVITY
July 18-20, 1985--University of Missouri-Columbia

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

July 18 Seminar on Q Technique and Its Methodology.
2-5:00 For those who feel they might benefit from a short course on technicalities prior to the main presentations.

July 19 Presentations of papers and studies of Q 9-12:00 methodology applied to diverse subject areas (coordinator, Steven R. Brown). This session will follow a conventional conference format.

2-5:00 Presentations addressing more abstract,
 theoretical, and methodological issues (coordinator, Charles R. Mauldin).

July 20
9-12:00 Presentation by William Stephenson.

2:00- Wrap-up and planning sessions.

Professor Joye Patterson (School of Journalism, University of Missouri, Columbia MO 65205, phone 314/882-4852) has agreed to coordinate reservations and related matters associated with the Institute; persons planning to attend should therefore contact her. Individuals desiring to make presentations should send a tentative abstract of their proposal (paper, lecture, roundtable topic) to Steven R. Brown, Department of Political Science, Kent State University, Kent OH 44242 (phone 216/672-2060). Early submissions are encouraged. It is hoped that a tentative program will appear in the January 1985 issue of Operant Subjectivity.