NEWS, NOTES & COMMENT

Q Sorts and Questionnaires

James McCain's "Ideology and Leadership in Post-Nkrumah Ghana" (see "Q Bibliographic Update") is the most recent of the comparatively few examples of Q technique conjoined with questionnaire methodologies. In this instance, McCain reports survey responses to opinion items previously shown to discriminate among Q factors (see McCain, "Ideology in Africa," African Studies Review, 1975, 18, 61-87). William Stephenson has outlined the basic principles involved in The Study of Behavior (see chapter on "The Prior Analysis of Questionnaires"). Other references on this topic would include:
